AMERICAN TARS KILLED CHINAMAN

Found Guilty by Court at Hongkong.

CULPRITS ARE NOT KNOWN

United States Asked to Pay an Indemnity—Victim Drowned in River.

HONGKONG, Oct. 20.—The finding of the court of investigation, consisting of Chinese officials and Consul General Cheshire, into the drowning of a Chinaman in the Pearl River, Canton, on September 25, was that, in the opinion of the court, the crime was committed by sailors in the American uniform. The court thought that continued efforts should be made to discover the culprits in order that they might be punished according to the law of their country.

In view of the circumstances and the many precedents in which indemnity was paid by China to foreigners, Americans included, the court recommended that the United States pay an indemnity to the family of the murdered man.

ROBBED BY MASKED MEN.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 20.—Joseph McMillan, hotelkeeper, at Ironville, was was bound and gagged by masked men, who robbed the place of $150. The thieves escaped.

British Expedition Snowbound in Tibet

Returning Troops Are Suffering Severely. Two Soldiers Died Crossing Tanga Pass in a Blizzard.

PHARI JONG, Tibet, Oct. 20.—General Macdonald, his staff, and the rear column of the British expedition returning to India from Lassa, are snowbound here.

The road southward from Gyang-Tse to this place is obliterated. It is impossible to say when an advance can be made. The expedition crossed Tanga Pass on Monday last in a blizzard. Seventy-two men fell exhausted. When the troops encamped at night the blizzard was still raging and two men died.

Start Delayed.

When the British expedition left Lassa newspaper correspondents with Colonel Younghusband sent word that the start had not been made a day too soon, and, as it was, considerable anxiety was manifested lest the terrible Tibetan winter should overtake the expedition before it was safely over the passes.

Phari is 103 miles south of Gyang-Tse, and at the entrance to the Chumbi Valley. This valley is to be occupied by the British until the indemnity is paid by the Tibetans. If the British have reached Phari, the greater part of their journey is over, though their present experience shows that the correspondence were right in asserting that things had been out pretty freely.

It is, however, probable that the entire expedition will have to remain in the Chumbi Valley all the winter. It is the country between there and Sikkim that has hitherto proved an insurmountable obstacle to all except the hardiest and most adventurous of travelers.

The two passes which form the main lines of communication are each over 14,500 feet high, and the roads which the British are beginning to construct over a better route, and which will, when complete, make Lassa only a month's journey from Calcutta, certainly cannot be constructed during the cold weather.

RUMSELLERS IGNORE REVOCATION OF LICENSES

RUTLAND, Vt., Oct. 20.—Perceval W. Rutland, chairman of the Rutland board of license commissioners, has revoked the licenses of all the local liquor dealers for alleged violations of the State laws.

The licensees refuse to recognize the commission and continue doing business.

BRISK CAMPAIGN ON IN CANADA

Fate of Laurier's Government in Balance.

HANGS ON COMING ELECTION

Opposition Candidates Nominated in All Parts of the Dominion—Prominent Men Take Stump.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 20.—The campaign for the election of members of the Canadian parliament, on November 3, upon which depends the fate of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government, is vehemently contested in all parts of the country.

In the eastern provinces candidates have been nominated by both the Liberals and Conservatives in practically every constituency.

R. L. Borden, of Halifax, the Conservative leader, will begin a speaking tour in New Brunswick at Woodstock today. Cabinet ministers will also deliver addresses in behalf of the government. The Liberals are relying on the prosperity of the country and on their program for the construction of a transcontinental railroad.

The railroad plan is unpopular in this city, and the Conservatives assert they will win both seats in St. John.

No Saloons or Police In This Kentucky Town

Grand Jury Says Licenses Are Illegal and Board of Trustees Says It Cannot Pay for Protection.

JACKSON, Ky., Oct. 20.—As a result of vigorous measures taken by the Breathitt county grand jury, Jackson is without either saloons or policemen.

Circuit Judge Riddle decided that the granting of licenses for saloons was illegal, and ordered the saloons closed. The board of trustees has retaliated by dismissing the police force, on the ground that without the revenue from saloon licenses it was unable to pay policemen.

County Judge James Hargis has come to the relief of the situation by having an extra force of deputy sheriffs sworn in. This order was made, without any comment, late Tuesday, and the citizens were agreeably surprised when there was no shooting or disorder in town Tuesday night.

Judge Hargis has declared that there shall neither be saloons nor "blind tigers" in Jackson.

OTTO TAUSSIG CAUGHT IN CANARY ISLANDS

VIENNA, Oct. 20.—Otto Taussig, who absconded October 11, at about the time his brother Victor, head of the firm of S. Taussig & Co., committed suicide, was arrested yesterday in the Canary Islands.

Otto is charged with carrying off $140,000 of the money of the firm, which had been declared insolvent, with liabilities estimated at $200,000 said to be due to Bourse speculations.

ELECTION INSPECTORS GET LONG SENTENCES

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—All five members of the Santiago provincial election returning board have been sentenced to fourteen years and eight months' imprisonment each for falsifying returns in order to seat several representatives belonging to the Moderate coalition.

LABRADOR STEAMER NOW A WEEK OVERDUE

ST. JOHN, N. F., Oct. 20.—The Labrador mail steamer Virginia Lake is now a week overdue, and it is feared that some mishap has befallen her.

Besides her crew, the Virginia Lake has on board several hundred men from the fishing fleets.

SMALLPOX PLAGUE MENACES CHICAGO

Disease Appears in All Parts of City.

BEST HOMES ARE INVADED

Residences of the Rich and Poor Hold Victims—Worst Since Fair.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 20.—Chicago is threatened with the worst epidemic of smallpox since the two years following the World's Fair. Chief Medical Inspector Herman Spaulding declares.

The disease has invaded the neighborhoods of the well-to-do, and the latest death in the isolation hospital is that of Mrs. Anna Lee, who leaves a husband and three children at 2315 Groveland Avenue. Sixteen cases have been received since Saturday.

"This is the strangest outbreak I have ever known, and the worst since the two years following the World's Fair here," Spaulding said. "The disease is making strides everywhere. We have cases in Groveland and Archer Avenues, Wallace Street, Wells St., and, in fact, all over the city. The high-class neighborhoods are not spared."

"We have not been able to trace the source to any single case. No one person could have scattered the infection broadcast in this way. The lesson of the outbreak is that the people simply must vaccinate. Nothing else on earth will help."
